

The Indie Circle

World Music Day Special

Presented by Sony Music Publishing, IPRS and CCF in association with Jugnu Music

3:00 PM – 3:30 PM

Registrations & Welcome

Guests arrive and connect with songwriters, artists, producers, composers, publishers, labels, and industry professionals.

3:30 PM – 4:15 PM

Session 1: Understanding Music Rights in Today's Industry

Siddharth Sharma and Rumpa Banerjee

Presented by Sony Music Publishing & IPRS

A conversation on copyright, publishing, royalties, performance rights, and the evolving music business, aimed at empowering creators with a deeper understanding of their rights and revenue opportunities.

4:15 PM – 5:15 PM

Session 2: The Art of Songwriting

Featuring Mellow D, Azadd(Thought) & Simiran Kaur Dhadli

An intimate discussion on the craft of songwriting, creative collaboration, artistic identity, and the journeys behind some of today's most impactful songs. The panel will offer insights into how songwriters transform ideas into music that connects with audiences across genres and generations.

5:15 PM – 6:00 PM

Tea, Networking & Industry Connect

A curated networking session bringing together artists, songwriters, composers, producers, labels, publishers, media professionals, and industry stakeholders to exchange ideas and explore future collaborations.

6:00 PM – 7:00 PM

The Indie Circle Showcase

Celebrating Voices from Punjab, Haryana, Chandigarh & Himachal Pradesh

A special World Music Day showcase featuring a diverse lineup of folk and independent singer-songwriters from North India. The showcase celebrates the region's rich storytelling traditions, contemporary sounds, and the vibrant creator community that continues to shape the future of Indian music.

Featuring performances by artists from the The Indie Circle camp alongside emerging and established independent voices from the region.

7:00 PM Onwards

Closing Remarks & Informal Networking